A Message from Dr. Tierney Bates, Interim Executive Director of University Career Services [11]

Posted: June 9, 2020

May 26, 2020

Our team in University Career Services works with all students from all walks of life, to serve you, our UNC students and we are intentional in the support for Black students and other marginalized communities in which we work. The death of George Floyd in Minneapolis was senseless and utterly heartbreaking. We, in our local communities and across the nation, must do better. The recent tragedies remind us that this commitment must extend beyond the realm of investing to shape how we support our students and employers.
