This event is open to UNC undergrad and graduate majors except those belonging to MBA, Law, Medical, or Dental programs (which are served by separate career offices).

Four Ways to Connect

We recognize that students have multiple competing priorities for their time on-campus (and off-campus) that don’t always allow for participating in recruitment activities hosted by University Career Services. Our goal is to foster events that meet students where they are. To that end, we are promoting four modalities that allow students to choose what works best for initial engagement with recruiters. We have also spoken with recruiters to ensure they take measures not to privilege one modality over another. So that students can rest assured that there is no penalty to their applications based on their chosen form of engagement. At University Career Services, we’ve got students covered!!

- Connect by 1:1 or group sessions scheduling on Handshake Virtual Fairs with recruiters available to discuss their schools, campus culture, or application processes: whether you are graduate school seeking or just want to expand your network for future opportunities at the on-campus event they’re at.
- Connect by virtual chatting on Handshake with recruiters available to discuss graduate school applications that interest you: all recruiters will be obliged to set up Handshake’s 15-minute virtual chats scheduling tool on each graduate school application (if applicable) 4-weeks prior to the fair (or have a recruiter’s contact info available on their Handshake company page who can schedule a 15-minute virtual chat outside of Handshake).
- Connect by direct messaging on Handshake with recruiters managing graduate school applications that interest you: all recruiters will be obliged to set up Handshake’s messaging tool on each grad school application (if applicable) 4-weeks prior to the fair and afterward until the postings close (or have a recruiter’s contact info available on their Handshake page).
- Connect by applying directly on Handshake to the graduate school from the attending schools: all grad school applications that schools discuss at the fair will be posted on Handshake (if applicable) 4-weeks prior to the fair and afterward until the postings close.
