Life After Law School: Exploring Career Options After Earning a JD [9]

2022
6:00 PM 7:15 PM
Location: Zoom
Type of Event: Workshop

Are you thinking about attending law school in the future or have you already completed the law school application process? Do you want to earn a Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree but are unsure what your future career aspirations are? If so, then the Life After Law School: Exploring Career Options After Earning a J.D. workshop is for you! In this workshop, you’ll have the opportunity to hear from a panel of law school alumni in various careers on topics such as what they enjoy about their career, challenges of their role, how law school prepared them for their role, and how they networked throughout law school and after graduation. Make sure to bring your questions as there will also be time for students to ask the panelists questions as well!
