Learning to Network and Interview Successfully- Graduate Students [17]

2017
10:00 AM 1:30 PM
Location:
Graduate Student Center- 211a W Cameron Ave, Chapel Hill
Type of Event:
For Graduate Students, Workshop
Co-hosted by the Graduate School, Training Initiatives in Biological and Biomedical Science (TIBBS), and University Career Services.

Although most people realize the importance of networking and interviewing well for proactively managing their careers, many do not have a clear plan for doing so. Frankly, most people simply don’t have the time to create a plan?leading to an approach that is haphazard, at best. In this half-day workshop, three Ph.D.-level coaches present on how to network and interview successfully by encouraging participants to be intentional, authentic, and articulate in their networking and interviewing process. Equipped with those three tenets, job seekers become empowered and confident as they manage their careers and conduct a job search campaign.

UnitedHealth Group Information Session

5:30 PM 6:30 PM
Location:
239A/B Hanes Hall
Type of Event:
Information Session

UnitedHealthcare is looking to identify several graduate students to join our team starting this summer as Directors of Strategy (full-time hires) or Strategic Initiatives Interns. This is an opportunity to impact the healthcare system and to make a difference in the lives of millions of UnitedHealthcare members. By joining either UHC Community & State (C&S) or Medicare & Retirement (M&R), you will be in a position where you will impact the development and implementation of new approaches to the healthcare marketplace that will improve people’s lives.

In joining UnitedHealthcare, you will lead mission critical initiatives such as:

? Lead a product initiative to influence state or national policy through research and demonstration projects or by helping develop more competitive products that deliver both more value and improved outcomes for our members.

? Develop and pilot new approaches to addressing the social drivers of health and help to change the broader circumstances of members’ lives providing greater stability, access, and wellbeing that can allow members to rise out of poverty.

? Deploy innovative strategies to promote health, wellness and independent lifestyles for our Medicare members projects that drive the development of national policy for this critical population.

Community & State serves the most disadvantaged in our society that includes 1/3 of all children in the country who are eligible for coverage by Medicaid and how well we serve the greater good is the most critical result we achieve.

Serving nearly one-in-five Medicare beneficiaries, UnitedHealthcare Medicare & Retirement is the largest business dedicated to the health and well-being needs of seniors and other Medicare beneficiaries. We are delivering on the promise made to our nation’s retirees.
