Part-Time Opportunities & Experiential Learning

Did you know there is a program administered through UNC University Career Services dedicated to helping students find part-time off-campus employment opportunities and connecting them to experiential learning opportunities?

For students who have questions or concerns about Federal Work Study, please email work-study@unc.edu [1]

For questions related to part-time work or experiential learning opportunities, please email jld@unc.edu [2]

FAQ:

What is JLD?

The primary goal of the Job Location and Development (JLD) program is to locate and develop off-campus job opportunities for currently enrolled UNC Chapel Hill students regardless of financial need.

What is Experiential Learning?

Experiential learning is an engaged learning process whereby students learn by doing? and by reflecting on the experience.

Experiential learning activities can include, but are not limited to, hands-on laboratory experiments, internships, practicums, field exercises, job shadowing, career treks, undergraduate research and more.

What are the benefits of being involved in Experiential Learning?

- Network by meeting new professional contacts.
• Gain professionalism while building your resume.
• Clarify your job search focus and narrow your career goals.
• Learn and discover about new industry trends and occupations

Virtual Experiential Learning: Spring 2021

University Career Services will be hosting a handful of virtual experiential learning experiences. The experiences include two types:

• Virtual Career Trek

A Virtual Career Trek allows students to learn about different companies and organizations through a live virtual event with representatives from the host employer. Students can learn about the host employer and its industry, listen to a panel of employees to learn about their daily responsibilities, and possibly participate in small-group breakout sessions so you can meet representatives, ask questions, and network. Virtual Career Treks mirror in-person Career Treks, but on a shorter timeframe. Virtual Career Treks are one to two hours in length and can be offered at various times.

• Virtual Job Shadow

A Virtual Job Shadow experience allows students to learn about different careers and occupations through virtual one on one sessions with representatives from a host employer. Students are able to learn about the host employer as well as their career journey, daily activities, and other information relating to the focused occupation. Virtual Job Shadows mirror in-person Job Shadow experiences, but on a shorter time frame. Virtual Job Shadows can be one to 1.5 hours and can be offered at various times.

Participating Employers: Northwestern Mutual, Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association, Henderson Collegiate, Sports Endeavors Inc., Fidelity Investments, Liberty Hardware Manufacturing Corporation, and Blue Cross North Carolina. Spend 1-2 hours with one of these employers and explore occupations and industries!

Application: Log into your handshake account and look under the employer "UNC-CH Experiential Learning" The job postings are the different experiences and you will have to apply to be considered for one. All you need when applying is an updated resume

What are the other services of JLD?

- Part-Time Job Fairs held each spring and fall semester where on and off campus employers are hiring students for part-time work.
- Micro-Internships enhance placement rates and help students find the right jobs. Parker Dewey is a free platform that allows students to demonstrate skills and explore career paths across various fields, industries and disciplines. UCS has partnered with Parker Dewey to begin promoting micro-internships to UNC Chapel Hill students. Projects exist for all majors and can incorporate a student’s outside experience/interests learned outside of their major. Registration details for Students, Alumni, and Employers can be found here: http://info.parkerdewey.com/unc
- Sign up for our Part Time Job Listserv by emailing lynneca@email.unc.edu the word "subscribe" (On and Off Campus Jobs).

Disclaimer: Students should always exercise caution with responding to job and internship postings. This listserv coordinated by University Career Services acts only as a referral service and makes no particular recommendations regarding potential employers or employees. Neither UNC Chapel Hill nor University Career Services makes any representation or guarantee whatsoever about any position listed through the listserv, nor does UNCCCH or University Career Services assume any responsibility for safety, wages, working conditions, or any other aspect of off-campus employment.

What are the benefits of working part-time in college?

UNC Chapel Hill Libraries [13]

- The University Libraries at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill employs over 400 Student Assistants each year in many different departments. The job descriptions of Student Assistants working in the University Libraries encompass a wide range of opportunities such as: filing, typing, editing, shelving books, assisting patrons, checking books in/out, maintaining stacks, enforcing library policies, reserve processing, acquisitions, cataloging, online searching, maintaining operational hours, working with local databases, and other special projects.

UNC Information Technology Services (IT) [14]

- "The ITS Service Desk is one of the first points of contacts for technological support services for students. The team provides 24/7 support through phones, chat, web and walk-in services. (While the University is operating remotely during the pandemic, hours and services have been adjusted.) The Service Desk is comprised of both full-time employees and student workers, so the opportunity to train alongside professionals is offered."

Some departments post their opportunities on Handshake such as:

- UNC-CH Temporary Services
- UNC-CH ITS Classroom Hotline
- UNC-CH Student Stores
- and more

Airtable Database for Part-Time Job Postings

This link [15] will take you to an airtable that serves as a database for part-time opportunities. (NOTE: scroll to the very bottom of the airtable to see the most recent postings!)

The airtable will:

- include part-time jobs on and off campus
- include jobs that are both posted on handshake and not on handshake
- have resources to locate remote work and other part-time opportunities
- include website links to major chains that typically hire year around
- be updated on a weekly basis
Handshake Database for Part-Time Job Postings

Our Handshake Platform offers numerous Part-Time Job postings [16] for you to review and apply to. These jobs can be local, regional, and national since some are able to be done remotely. This allows you as a student to take advantage of part-time job opportunities beyond what you could have done in-person. Click here [16] to see a sample of current postings.
