

Career and Graduate/Professional School Information Fairs

Upcoming Virtual Career and Information Fairs from Handshake

For job and internship seeking students, COVID-19 has jump-started the nascent virtual career fair industry! What this means for you is that there is still a lot of opportunity out there for you as companies are taking advantage of these virtual platforms to source talent. Some virtual career fairs are open to students from anywhere in the US, while others are closed for a host university's students only.

FAQ:

Inclusive Workplace Leadership Series - September 13th

An inclusive workplace is one where everyone is valued, respected, and treated fairly. These workplaces breed trust, engagement, and high-performance—which usually means high-rewards and high-compensation! University Career Services put together a series of workshops to help you understand how companies utilize diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) practices to accomplish this; and to also learn how to evaluate a company's DEI practices and values. Top innovative organizations [1] that recruit at UNC Chapel Hill and elsewhere are seeking students with a DEI Mindset as they enter the workforce through internships, full-time jobs, and even entrepreneurship. These organizations are increasingly embracing DEI values and practices [2]; as well as a Stakeholder Capitalism approach to business ? in effect, a people, planet, profit philosophy. Regardless of your race, gender, sexual orientation, social class, religion, etc. ? where you decide to work and the type of workplace you thrive in can have a huge impact on your career trajectory, well-being, and financial security. Don't miss the virtual workshops below!
