2018 NC Master's & Doctoral Career Fair [7]
You are cordially invited to attend the 17th Annual NC Master's and Doctoral Career Fair this November hosted by Duke University, NC State University, UNC-Chapel Hill, UNC-Charlotte, UNC-Greensboro, and Wake Forest University.

This event continues to grow due to the participation of employers/organizations and the over 700 advanced degree candidates that usually attend each year. The event attracts diverse talent throughout the state and region.

Students and scholars from various academic disciplines will be in attendance, including Biochemistry, Biology, Economics, Engineering, Environmental Policy, History, Immunology, Mathematics Philosophy, Psychology, Statistics and many more! This is a great opportunity to share opportunities ranging from internships, postdoctoral and full-time positions with Master's, PhD Candidates, and postdocs.

A diverse group of employers have previously participated in the fair. A selected list of these employers include: CIA; Becton, Dickinson and Company; Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond; Henry M. Jackson Foundation; Navigant Consulting; NASA Langley Research Center; ORAU (Oak Ridge Associated Universities); Proctor & Gamble Company; Teach for America; Rho, Inc.; and more!

Career Fair Day Info Sessions: Limited Availability:

These 30-minute sessions take place during the busiest times of the fair and are quite popular for both employers and students. For an additional $100, you can add an information session when you complete the registration form. Alternatively, information session times may be available at the 6 different schools the day before and after the fair to help you maximize your time in the Triangle area.

Space is limited, so don't delay, register today!
