

LET'S SHINE BRIGHTER!

#ForteShineBrighter

Congratulations! You've received a special invitation to join a new initiative that's exclusively for students affiliated with Forté Rising Star sponsor schools and groups.

Forté's Rising Star designation benefits undergraduate women of all majors—and earning it demonstrates your career readiness to top employers. Candidates master a five-part curriculum at their convenience—throughout college or in one year—focused on career exploration, event participation, job searching, networking, and MBA exploration. Your candidacy begins once you "join" and start earning the 500 points needed to add Forté Rising Star to your resume. Along the way, redeem points for rewards that support your career development.
