Are you interested in applying to law school in the future or have you applied to law school and plan to attend this upcoming fall? If so, then the Strategies for Success in Law School workshop is for you! In this workshop, you’ll have the opportunity to learn from a panel of current law school students in their 1L, 2L, or 3L years about how they prepared for law school, skills necessary for success in law school, and how law school courses differ from undergraduate courses. You’ll also discover tips on how to network effectively and receive advice on overcoming challenges in law school.
